This Week's News & Events

LAVC Spring Break 2010 – March 29-April 5

LAVC will hold its Spring Break from Monday, March 29 – Monday, April 5. In addition, the campus will be closed on Wednesday, March 31 for the Cesar E. Chavez holiday, and campus offices will have a half-day closure on Friday, April 2. During Spring Break, classes will not be in session but most college offices will remain open (with the exception of the holiday on March 31 and the half-day closure on April 2). Please note: the Bookstore will not be open during Spring Break. In addition, some offices may be closed during that week.

CDC-WORKS Program Invited to Speak to the CA Department of Education

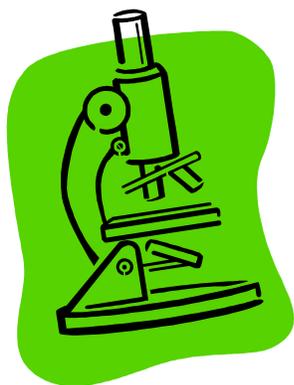

The LAVC Child Development Careers (CDC-WORKs) program has been invited to make a presentation to the California Department of Education on March 29 in Sacramento. Bonnie Rapp, program facilitator, and Terry Teplin, director of the Child Development Center, will present information about LAVC's collaborative program, which combines academics with training for proven student success. The CDC-WORKs program (formerly known as TANF-CDC) is designed to recruit California Community College students who are current or former cash aid recipients, and who wish to pursue a career in the field of Early Childhood Education (ECE). The LAVC CDC-WORKs program has had great success in enabling students to gain State Permits amongst the 61 community colleges in the state to host this program. In addition, Dawn Stevens, an LAVC student, has received the CDC-WORKs' 3rd annual Ed Connolly Scholarship, and is the second student to win this award from LAVC. The LAVC CDC-WORKs Program is located in the Continuing Education Office in Bungalow 13. Congratulations to the CDC-WORKs program!

LAVC Closed for the Cesar E. Chavez Holiday

LAVC will be closed on Wednesday, March 31 in observance of the Cesar E. Chavez holiday. This state holiday honors the birthday of Cesar E. Chavez, who is a well-known farm worker, labor leader and civil rights activist. Chavez also co-founded the National Farm Workers Association, which is now called the United Farm Workers. The campus will resume normal operating hours on Thursday, April 1.

Save the Date – LAVC Science Speaker Series Presentation on April 7

The LAVC Biology Department and the Associate Student Union will hold the first presentation of its Spring 2010 Sciences Speaker Series with a “Protective Effects of Estrogen in Bone” presentation by Dr. Suzie Krum on Wednesday, April 7 from 6-7 p.m. in Monarch Hall. There will also be speaker's reception with cookies and punch from 4:30-5:30 p.m. in the Allied Health & Sciences Center, Room 210. Both events are free and open to the public. Reservations are not required for the presentation, but the reception is by reservations only (on a first-come, first-served basis). To RSVP to the reception, email heldcl@lavc.edu with the subject line “Speakers reception”. For more information, contact Professor Pamela Byrd-Williams at (818) 947-2880 or at byrdwipb@lavc.edu.

Save the Date – LAVC Career Week is April 12-15

LAVC will hold a Career Week during April 12-15 with a series of events and activities to help students to become more prepared for their future careers and jobs. LAVC Career Week will begin on April 12 with two “Here I am at Valley. What Road do I Take Next?” workshops from 1-2 p.m. and from 5:30-6:30 p.m. at the Career/Transfer Center in the Administration Building, Room 126. On April 13, there will be a College and Majors Fair from 10 a.m.-1 p.m. in Monarch Square. On April 14, a Job Fair will be held from 10 a.m.-1 p.m. in Monarch Square, and “Resume Writing & Interview Skills” workshops from 1-2:30 p.m. and from 5-6:30 p.m. at the Career/Transfer Center in the Administration Building, Room 126. There will be a “Service Learning Volunteer Fair” on April 15 from 10 a.m.-1 p.m. in Monarch Square, as well as a Career Speaker Series Workshop on “Careers in Law” from 1-2:30 p.m. in the Foreign Language Building, Room 102. For more information, contact the Career/Transfer Center at (818) 947-2646.
