New Exhibition at the LAVC Art Gallery– “A Fine Day’s Work: Photographs from the Michael R. Whalen Collection”

The LAVC Art Gallery and Arts Council presents its latest exhibition entitled “A Fine Day’s Work: Photographs from the Michael R. Whalen Collection” from April 5-May 12. This exhibition consists of over 100 vintage photographs created between 1895 and 1988 by eighteen renowned photographers. All of the prints are drawn from the private collection of Michael R. Whalen, which uniquely features all the photographs by an artist taken during a single photographic session. Included are works by Richard Avedon, Ruth Bernhard, Ilse Bing, Margaret Bourke-White, Josef Breitenbach, Ralston Crawford, Imogen Cunningham, Harold Edgerton, Helen Levitt, Ralph Meatyard, Hansel Mieth, Lisette Model, Alexander Rodchenko, Aaron Siskind, Karl Struss, Jerry Uelsmann, Adam Clark Vroman and Weegee. The exhibit is free to the public. The Art Gallery is open Monday-Thursday from 11 a.m.-2 p.m. and 6-9 p.m.; it will be closed from April 18-25 for Spring Break. For more information, visit <http://www.lavc.edu/arts/artgallery.html>.

LAVC to Host the 2nd Annual LACCD Philosophy Conference

The 2nd Annual LACCD Philosophy Conference will be held at LAVC on Friday, April 15 from 10 a.m.-3 p.m. in Monarch Hall. The event is being sponsored by the LAVC Philosophy/Economics Department. The keynote speaker will be Rob Gressis, assistant professor of Philosophy at Cal State Northridge, and the plenary speaker will be Zev Garber, professor emeritus of Jewish Studies at LAVC. Professor Garber will speak on a philosophical-mystical take on the Jewish Jesus to acknowledge the publication of his new edited volume, The Jewish Jesus: Revelation, Reflection, Reclamation. For more information, contact Christopher Pallotti at pallotc@lavc.edu or (818) 947-2468.

Participate or Donate to “Hands Across California” and Show Your Support For Community Colleges

Los Angeles Valley College will be participating in the “Hands Across California” on Sunday, April 17 to help raise awareness and funds for California community college students. This is a monumental once-in-a-generation event that will create a 1,500-mile line with 1.5 million others in a vast statewide line of students, faculty, staff, alumni and friends that will stretch from San Diego to above Sacramento—literally uniting nearly all of the 112 community colleges in California. To participate, you can register to stand in line (by clicking “Get Started”) and/or you can donate to help raise funds that will fund scholarships for Valley College students. For every dollar raised, the Bernard Osher Foundation will give 50% more in a matching donation towards creating a permanent student scholarship. For more information, visit www.handsacrosscalifornia.org/About.aspx.

H. Dennis and Anne Beaver Foundation Awards an LAVC Student with an All-Expenses-Paid Trip to Study in the South of France This Summer

The H. Dennis and Anne Beaver Foundation has selected Krystle Ramos, an LAVC student, to receive an all-expenses paid trip to participate in LAVC’s Study Abroad Program to Montpellier, France. The H. Dennis and Anne Beaver Foundation selects one or two LAVC and/or CSUN students to receive an extraordinary scholarship to study in France. For several years, Dennis Beaver, who is an LAVC alumnus, and his foundation have encouraged foreign language study at the high school and university level, by sending gifted, financially deserving, and highly motivated students to France. The scholarship that Krystal is receiving will cover all trip expenses, including travel, room and board, tuition and a modest weekly allowance to cover some meals and incidentals. During her trip, she will stay with a host family and will study advanced language courses at the ILP (Institut Linguistique du Peyrou) in Montpellier, France. Krystle is transferring to CSUN as a linguistics major with a minor in French, and is currently enrolled in LAVC’s French 5/6. LAVC would like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Beaver for their continued generosity and support of the Study Away program here at Valley. Congratulations Krystle!

Ron Reis Awarded 2011 Western Writers of America Award

Ron Reis, chair of the technology department, has been awarded the 2011 Western Writers of America Spur Award for the best western Juvenile nonfiction book of the year. Previous award winners include Larry McMurty (Lonesome Dove) and Michael Blake (Dances with Wolves). Congratulations Ron!

Reminder!!! Parking Lot A and a Part of College Road South will be Closed Until August 31. Parking Lot A and the southern portion of College Road South will be closed from April 1-August 31, 2011. The area will be renovated to improve traffic flow in the lot, add additional parking spaces, create a new pedestrian walkway to the Metro stop on Fulton Avenue and Burbank Boulevard, and to install new parking lot lighting and new blue light emergency phone stations to ensure safety on campus. During the 5-month closure, alternate parking for faculty/staff will be available in College Road North, the northern portion of College Road South, Parking Lot C, H, and K. For the latest construction update, please visit <http://www.lavc.edu/revitalizingvalley/constructionupdates.html>.

ATTENTION FACULTY! Run For Academic Senate and Have a Voice! The Academic Senate Election Committee is pleased to announce the upcoming election for Executive Senate Officers and Representatives. The election will commence April 1st and end April 14th. For more detailed information, visit <http://www.lavc.edu/senate/docs/Academicsenateelectionnextbulletin.doc>.

April 11—Free Active Learning Technology Tools Workshop. Professional Development & Title V will hold a “Free Active Learning Technology Tools” workshop for faculty on Monday, April 11 from 1-2:30 p.m. in the PDC. Come find out about free technology tools you can use to engage your students. You’ll receive links to great websites and ways to incorporate them in your classes to promote active learning through social networking, collaborating and communicating with others, creating and sharing media, and more. The facilitator of this workshop is Deborah Kaye. For more information, contact Professional Development at (818) 947-2712 or profdev@lavc.edu, or visit <http://lavc.edu/profdev>.

April 12—iMovie Workshop. Professional Development & Title V will offer an “iMovie” workshop on Tuesday, April 12 from 1-2:30 p.m. in the PDC. This workshop will show you how to use iMovie. It’s easy to create your own movie to introduce yourself to your students, highlight key topics in your course, give in-depth explanations, illustrate hard-to-teach concepts, and review for tests. Bring a flash drive with photos and leave with a movie to show in class or post online! The facilitator of this workshop is LaVergne Rosow. For more information, contact Professional Development at (818) 947-2712 or profdev@lavc.edu, or visit <http://lavc.edu/profdev>.

April 13—Campus Violence: Strategies for Prevention Program. The County of LA-Department of Mental Health, in collaboration with the LAVC Student Health Center, will hold a program to provide strategies to prevent campus violence on Wednesday, April 13 from 9 a.m.-12 noon in the Student Services Center—2nd Floor Multi-Purpose Room. Participants will gain greater situational awareness about targeted school violence, learn about strategies designed to stop the path to violence, and learn current best practices regarding assessment and response. All faculty & staff are invited, but space is limited! To RSVP, contact Francie Hurwit at (818) 947-2688.

April 13—Financial Planning Workshop. Professional Development will offer a “Financial Planning Workshop” for faculty/staff on Wednesday, April 13 from 1-2:30 p.m. in the Faculty Lounge. Topics include: saving for retirement, figuring how much you’ll need to live comfortably, how tax deferrals reduce your tax liability, how to pay for your kids’ or grandkids’ college education, and dealing with debt. The facilitator is James Katz, a retirement planner with the Hostetter Financial Group. For more information, contact Professional Development at (818) 947-2712 or profdev@lavc.edu, or visit <http://lavc.edu/profdev>.

April 13—ProfCast Workshop. Professional Development & Title V will offer a workshop for faculty entitled “ProfCast” on Wednesday, April 13 from 1-2:30 p.m. in the PDC. ProfCast is a versatile, powerful, yet very simple-to-use tool for recording presentations, including PowerPoint and/or Keynote slides. ProfCast allows you to record your presentation as you give it and create a podcast your students can watch and listen to again and again! Come learn how you can get started using this new tool for delivering content to your classes! This workshop is facilitated by Jim Marteney. For more information, contact Professional Development at (818) 947-2712 or profdev@lavc.edu, or visit <http://lavc.edu/profdev>.

Reminder—Spring Break is April 18-25. This year, Spring Break for faculty and students is from April 18-25, 2011; however, all staff are scheduled to work that week except during the Spring Break Holiday. The Spring Break Holiday for all full-time employees who are scheduled to work during Spring Break is 4 hours on Friday afternoon (April 22, 2011). Employees may request the balance of the day as a vacation day. Anyone who is ill on that day will be charged for an illness day, minus the 4 hours of holiday time. If the employee’s normal schedule does not include Fridays, he or she will need to arrange another time with the supervisor to take the 4 holiday hours. For employees who work less than full time or who do not ordinarily work on Fridays, please consult the appropriate collective bargaining agreement. Questions? Contact the Personnel Office at (818) 947-2871.

Is Your Information Correct on the LAVC Online Directory? The LAVC Administrative Services Office is assisting faculty, staff and administrators with updating information on the online LAVC phone/email directory at www.lavc.edu/directory. If an employee finds that his/her information is inaccurate or missing, they must notify his/her's supervisor/department chair/vice president. The employee's supervisor/department chair/vice president will then be responsible for contacting Yovanna Campos in Administrative Services (at camposyv@lavc.edu) with the following information:

- (1) employee's full name,
- (2) nickname (if applicable),
- (3) title,
- (4) department,
- (5) building location with room number
- (6) phone number,
- (7) fax number,
- (8) LAVC email address, &
- (9) secondary email address (if applicable)

Yovanna will respond back to the supervisor/department chair/vice president when the updates have been completed. If any questions, please contact Yovanna at camposyv@lavc.edu or by calling extension 2337.

Activities this Week

Vision Statement

Los Angeles Valley College serves the community as a leader in instructional excellence, facilitating the success of its diverse students, developing critical thinkers and life-long learners, and contributing to the economic and cultural vitality of the San Fernando Valley and beyond.

Mission Statement

Los Angeles Valley College is a comprehensive community college located in the center of the San Fernando Valley. The College serves the community by providing transfer, degree, career-technical, foundational, transitional and continuing education programs in an attractive and accessible learning environment that fosters student success. Embedded in these programs are the greater goals of critical thinking and life-long learning which are necessary for success in the workplace and for advancing one's education, personal development and quality of life.
