Calling All Faculty! Last Chance to Participate in the Summer 2011 Podcast Institute's "Creating Your Podcast" Workshops on August 1 & 3

The Virtual Valley will offer two sessions of its "Creating Your Podcast" workshop for faculty through the Valley College Podcast Institute on Monday, August 1 from 12 noon-3 p.m. and Wednesday, August 3 from 9 a.m.-12 noon in the Professional Development Center (Bungalow 83). In this session, participating faculty will create podcasts using the hardware and software available at LAVC. Participants are encouraged to bring in their script, any pictures or PowerPoint presentations they would like to include in the podcast. By the end of this session, the participating faculty will have a podcast that can be used in their classes, and have the skill to create more. For more information, contact Professional Development at (818) 947-2712 or visit its Web site at www.lavc.edu/profdev/.

New & Continuing Students Learn Tips on How to Be Successful at LAVC at the Student Success Jamboree on August 2-4

The LAVC Student Success Committee will hold new and returning students to a free "LAVC Student Success Jamboree" on August 2-4 from 9 a.m.-12 noon in Monarch Hall. This three-day bridge program will give students the tools and tips they'll need to be successful at Valley College! Participating students will not only learn about LAVC's programs and resources that will help them get the most out of their education, but will be able to make connections with instructors, staff, and other students! For more information, please email stars@lavc.edu.

Career/Transfer Center to Offer a Free UC Transfer Agreement Guarantee (TAG) Webinar on August 3 for Students Who Want to Transfer to a UC Campus

The LAVC Career/Transfer Center will offer "University of California TAG (Transfer Admission Guarantee)" webinars on Wednesday, August 3 at 10 a.m., Thursday, August 25 at 2 p.m., Thursday, September 8 at 10 a.m. and Wednesday, September 14 at 2 p.m. For more information and to sign up for a webinar, visit the Career/Transfer Center Web page at <http://www.lavc.edu/Transfer/index.html>.

Eight LAVC Faculty Members Help the Next Generation of Instructors by Mentoring Project MATCH Interns

LAVC faculty members Eric Swelstad (Media Arts), Arantxa Rodriguez (Media Arts), William Wallis (English), Alfred Zucker (English), Abraham Hoffman (History), Nathan Palencia (Philosophy), Cynthia Travelbee (Psychology) and Art Cherdack (Psychology) are mentoring interns who are interested in teaching at the community college-level through the Project MATCH (Mentors Act To Change History) Program. This instructional development program coordinated by the Los Angeles Community College District (LACCD) prepares and recruits prospective faculty members who meet certain criteria by providing him/her with a valuable internship/mentoring opportunity with current faculty members. Each intern is assigned a mentor that matches his/her particular subject area, will be assigned to work with the mentor to teach a 3-unit class, and will have the opportunity to gain a better understanding of the various responsibilities of faculty. By participating in this program, it may lead to a career as a full-time community college instructor, counselor or librarian for the interns.

Get the Latest Updated Campus Committee Schedule on the LAVC 411 Web Page

An updated schedule of campus committee meetings has been posted on the LAVC 411 page at <http://www.lavc.edu/411/>. The schedule, which is in an Excel format, notes the meeting dates of all Tier 1 and Tier 2 shared governance committees, and other selected workgroups. All committee chairs/leaders are asked to notify the Public Relations Office (at news@lavc.edu) if there are any changes/updates to that schedule. Individuals with questions regarding a specific committee and/or its meeting date, should contact the appropriate committee contact noted on the LAVC 411 Web page.

Got News to Share? Let the LAVC Public Office Help You Publicize It!

The LAVC Public Relations Office can assist with disseminating news and announcements, and promoting events and activities on campus. It can help LAVC departments, programs and services with posting: announcements in the College Bulletin, event announcements on the college's electronic marquee, calendar listings on LAVC's online calendar, news & events announcements on the LAVC homepage, and post announcements on LAVC's Facebook page and Twitter feed. The college's Web designer can also help update information on Web pages, and assist with designing Web pages for departments and programs! For more information on the services offered by the Public Relations Office or to download the PR Request Form, visit <http://www.lavc.edu/campusnews/pr.html>.

California Dream Act backers look to the next step

California Governor Jerry Brown signed the first of a two-bill package of AB130 at Los Angeles City College, which gives illegal immigrant college students access to private scholarship funds. Referred to as the "California Dream Act", this legislation is aimed at getting financial aid for undocumented immigrant college students. LACCD Chancellor Daniel LaVista was present at the signing of the bill; LAVC is one of the nine colleges in the District.
