LAVC College Bulletin February 26-March 3, 2012

This Issue's News & Events

You're Invited to the STARS's "Strategies for Success: Reading a Textbook" Workshop on February 27

The LAVC STARS (Strategic Team for the Advancement and Retention of Students) will hold a "Strategies for Success: Reading a Textbook" Workshop for students, faculty, staff, and administrators on Monday, February 27 from 1-2 p.m. in the Student Services Center's Multipurpose Room (2nd Floor). This STARS event brings together students, faculty/staff and administrators to have an open dialogue that examines how successful students comprehend difficult materials. Students will learn strategies to use when reading a textbook, including vocabulary tips. Faculty, staff and administrators will be able to learn tips on how to help students be more successful that they can pass along to their students, including class exercises and handouts. For more information, call (818) 947-2712 or email stars@lavc.edu.

Attention Students! Find Out How You Can Get Money for School at the Financial Aid Awareness Event on February 29

The LAVC Financial Aid Office will be hosting a Financial Aid & Scholarship Awareness Event on Wednesday, February 29 from 12 noon-2 pm in Monarch Hall. Students are invited to learn more about the financial aid options available to them, and get all their financial aid questions answered. There will be freebies available for students—while supplies last! For more information, contact Financial Aid at (818) 947-2412, financialaid@lavc.edu, or visit www.lavc.edu/financialaid/.

® LAVC CalWORKs Office Accepting Registrations for the GED Test Starting February 29

The LAVC CalWORKs Office will offer the next General Education Development (GED) Test on March 16-17; registrations will be accepted starting Wednesday, February 29 in the CalWORKs Office in Bungalow 14. The GED Test is offered once a month to adults who do not have a high school diploma. In addition, the CalWORKs Office also offers a practice test on Fridays at 9 a.m. For more information on the GED Test or the GED Practice test, contact Margie Thomas in the CalWORKs Office at (818) 947-2976 or visit www.lavc.edu/calworks.

LAVC Music to Offer a Free Wednesday Concert by the Juan Ignacio Band

A complete list of upcoming performances is noted on the Music Department Calendar at <http://www.lavc.edu/music/lavc-music-calendar.htm>. For more information, contact the Music Department Concert Hotline (818) 778-5633.

LAVC Art Gallery to Open a New “Obscured Lines” Exhibit on March 1

The LAVC Art Gallery will present a new exhibition featuring the work of nine local artists entitled “Obscured Lines: Contemporary Drawing in Los Angeles” from March 1-April 19 in the LAVC Art Gallery. An opening reception will be held on Thursday, March 1 from 6 - 8 p.m. This latest exhibition features contemporary drawings in Los Angeles from notable artists such as Joe Biel, Jennifer Celio, Margaret Griffith, Kiel Johnson, Timothy Nolan, Elizabeth Saveri, Sergio Teran, Hataya Tubtim, and Alexandra Wiesenfeld. For these artists, drawing is not simply about making marks or empty gestures. It is core to the physical manifestation of an idea, feeling or experience. The works on display blur the symbolic line that rigidly defines drawing. Looking beyond traditional “works on paper,” these artists demonstrate the process of drawing as experimental and exploration that is relevant to metropolitan culture in Los Angeles. The exhibition is open to the public. The show begins on Thursday, March 1 from 6 – 8 p.m., and will end on April 19. The LAVC Art Gallery’s hours of operation are Monday-Thursday from 11 a.m. - 2 p.m., and 6 p.m. - 9 p.m.; the Gallery will be closed during spring break. For more information, contact the Art Gallery at (818) 778-5536 or visit <http://www.lavc.edu/arts/artgallery.html>.

LAVC is Officially Named as a 2011 “Tree Campus USA” by the Arbor Day Foundation and Toyota

LAVC has been recently recognized as a 2011 Tree Campus USA® by the Arbor Day Foundation and Toyota Motor North America, Inc.’s Tree Campus USA program. This national program honors colleges and universities and their leaders for promoting healthy trees and engaging students and staff in the spirit of conservation. To obtain this distinction, LAVC met the five core standards for sustainable campus forestry required by Tree Campus USA, which included the establishment of a tree advisory committee, evidence of a campus tree-care plan, dedicated annual expenditures for its campus tree program, an Arbor Day observance and the sponsorship of student service-learning projects. This campus-wide effort was led by the LAVC Sustainability Group, and President Sue Carleo.

Need a Copy of the College Logo? LAVC Faculty & Staff Can Now Download a Copy Online

The LAVC Public Relations Office has posted copies of the LAVC logo, and college document templates on LAVC's Graphic Standard & Style Guide Web page. This special Web page for LAVC faculty, staff and administrators, which is only accessible from an on-campus faculty or staff computer, contains the college's graphic standards and style guide manual, versions of the LAVC logo for use on the Web site or for professionally printed materials, Word templates for the college letterhead, announcements and memos, and a PowerPoint presentation template. To access the LAVC Graphic Standard & Style Guide Web page, visit www.lavc.edu/styleguide/index.html.

LAVC in the News

Los Angeles Times

February 22, 2012

Community colleges hit by $149-million shortfall

The LA Times featured a story on the unexpected $149-million budget shortfall for California community colleges, which will mean more class cuts, layoffs, borrowing and probable elimination of summer programs affecting thousands of students. The state's 112 community colleges reported that revenues from students' fees are $107 million below projections for the current fiscal year as more economically strapped students seek and receive fee waivers. In addition, property tax revenues also fell short of estimates by about $41 million. The new cuts pose a particular challenge because most colleges have begun spring session and have little flexibility to change course offerings or make other adjustments that could minimize the effects. LA Valley College is part of the state's community college system.
