OUTSTANDING STUDENT ARTWORK SHOWCASED AT THE LAVC STUDENT SHOW 2016!

The LAVC Art Gallery and the LAVC Art Department will present its Student Art Show 2016 from May 19-26 in the LAVC Art Gallery in the Art Building. The exhibition is free and open to the public.

This annual showcase highlights the tremendous range of artwork created by Los Angeles Valley College students during the 2015-2016 academic year.

Juried by the art and photojournalism faculty, the selected artworks are among the exemplary pieces produced in courses taught within the art department, spanning a wide range of disciplines in the visual arts such as painting, drawing, design, illustration, photography, three-dimensional design, sculpture and ceramics. Students of diverse backgrounds, both art majors and non-art related ones, remarkably demonstrate a variety of approaches to material, methodology, and subject matter, revealing the successful outcome of a comprehensive art program. At the same time, each artwork reflects the very unique and nuanced style of individual students. Whether at the beginning, intermediate, or advanced level, the artworks on display collectively exhibit a thorough exploration of artistic expressions.

From May 23-26, the Art Gallery's regular hours of operation are Monday-Thursday from 1-3 p.m. and 6-9 p.m. Parking permit is required during regular gallery hours; a daily parking permit can be purchased in Parking Lot D. For more information, visit the LAVC Art Gallery Web Page or call (818) 778-5536.

JOB SEEKERS—DISCOVER "HOW TO WIN THE ROLE" IN YOUR INTERVIEW AT THE LAVC JOB CLUB MEETING!

The LAVC Job Training Office will hold its highly popular LAVC Job Club and an "Interviewing: How to Win the Role" workshop on Friday, May 27 at 9 a.m. in the Behavioral Sciences 100.

The LAVC Job Club is a highly popular program for individuals interested in finding employment, and has been highly successful in returning people to the workforce. The LAVC Job Club provides job seekers with an opportunity to network in person with employers and others, connect with over 300 job leads, meet with professional job counselors, and learn from experts on subjects such as resume writing, interview skills, and more! In addition, local businesses will be on hand to provide information on part-time and full-time jobs.

Guest presenter Garry Yates, a professional actor and workforce development motivational speaker, will present a two-hour workshop to share how to use simple, but effective techniques taken from the theater to improve the job seekers experience in "winning the role."

The LAVC Job Club meets on the last Friday of the month, and all meetings are open to the public; parking will be available on the 4th floor of the Parking Structure on Ethel Avenue and Hatteras Street. For more information, contact the LAVC Job Training Office at (818) 947-2941 or visit the LAVC Job Club Web page.

DON'T MISS THE ODD MARKET AT VALLEY COLLEGE ON MAY 28!

The Odd Market at Valley College begins on Saturday, May 28 from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. in Los Angeles Valley College's Parking Lot G (on the corner of Burbank Boulevard and Coldwater Canyon Extension).

This curated Esty-esque event, which will be held on the fourth Saturday of every month, features over 100 booths and vendors of curated artists, designers of fashion, jewelry, home goods, antiques, and collectibles, food trucks, a huge inflatable kids area, and much more.

The Odd Market at Valley College is organized by Phillip Dane, the same person who ran the Dodger Stadium Flea, Melrose Flea, and the Odd Markets at the Autry. It will take place on the fourth Saturday of the month in LAVC's Parking Lot G, which is near the corner of Burbank Boulevard and Coldwater Boulevard. Free parking will be available on Coldwater Extension.

For more information including information on the event or how to be a vendor/seller, visit the Odd Market at Valley College Web page.

ARE YOU TRANSFERRING TO A COLLEGE/UNIVERSITY THIS FALL? LET LAVC SHARE THE GOOD NEWS ON THE MARQUEES

The LAVC Public Relations Office is publicly recognizing its graduating students who will be transferring to four-year colleges and universities in Fall 2016 on the college's two electronic marquees. The names of LAVC students who are transferring will be proudly displayed on the marquee on June 7.

Graduates who have chosen to display the name of the school they are transferring to, are invited to take a photo in front to the marquee with their "name in lights" on the day of graduation. Graduates can share their photos on social media (don't forget to tag @lavalleycollege and use the hashtag #lavcgrad2016).

This is the fourth year the college has highlighted the success of its students who are continuing their educational journey at a college or university on the marquees. Many students choose to attend a community college to earn transferrable credits before they transfer to a four-year college/university to earn a bachelor's degree at a four-year college and university.

Graduates who would like LAVC to share the name of school you will be transferring to for Fall 2016, should send an email to news@lavc.edu with his/her name, the school he/she is transferring to, and the student's ID number by Friday, May 27, 2016.

LAVC STUDENTS, ALUMNI AND PROGRAM HONORED BY THE VALLEY ECONOMIC ALLIANCE

The Valley Economic Alliance recognized several LAVC students and an alumnus with its Steve Allen "Excellence in Education" Awards, a LAVC program with its "Business and Education Partnership", and an LAVC alumnus with its "Champion of Education" award at its Board of Governors' Meeting on May 12 at the Vaughn G3 Performing Arts Theater in Pacoima.

The following awards were presented to LAVC students, alumni and college program by the Valley Economic Alliance:

New programs launched to help California foster youth succeed in school

CAFWD.org featured an article on the Los Angeles Community College District paying attention to the issue of emancipated foster youth, those who are over 18. It passed a resolution at its May 11 board meeting that would identify and assist former foster youth through the Cooperating Agencies Foster Youth Educational Support (CAFYES) Program, which was established through the enactment of Senate Bill 1023 (2014). LACCD estimates that there at least 2,500 former foster youth in their system. LAVC, which is one of the nine colleges in the District, is assisting former youth through its Guardian Scholars program and will be receiving a portion of the funding for its program. Read the entire story, visit <http://www.cafwd.org/reporting/entry/campaigns-launched-to-help-california-foster-youth-succeed-in-school>.
