LAVC Selected to be Inducted into VICA's San Fernando Valley Business Hall of Fame

The Valley Industry and Commerce Association had named Los Angeles Valley College as one of the 2012 inductees into the San Fernando Valley Business Hall of Fame. This year, the other inductees include Edgar Rice Burroughs, Casa Vega Restaurant, Kaiser Permanente, and Universal Studios. Since 2008, VICA has recognized individuals, businesses and other community organizations that have been responsible for the continued success, economic vitality and culture of the San Fernando Valley by inducting them into the San Fernando Valley Business Hall of Fame. All the 2012 inductees will be honored at the 5th Annual San Fernando Valley Business Hall of Fame Dinner on June 7 at the Sheraton Universal Hotel. Congratulations!

You're Invited to the "Music for My Soul" Concert Featuring the LAVC Philharmonic Choir, College Choir and Vocal Jazz Ensemble

Final Week for the LAVC Art Gallery "Obscured Lines: Contemporary Drawing in Los Angeles" Exhibit

The current art exhibit featuring the work of nine local artists entitled "Obscured Lines: Contemporary Drawing in Los Angeles" will be featured in the LAVC Art Gallery from March 1-April 19. This exhibition, which is open to the public, features contemporary drawings in Los Angeles from notable artists such as Joe Biel, Jennifer Celio, Margaret Griffith, Kiel Johnson, Timothy Nolan, Elizabeth Saveri, Sergio Teran, Hataya Tubtim, and Alexandra Wiesenfeld. For these artists, drawing is not simply about making marks or empty gestures. It is core to the physical manifestation of an idea, feeling or experience. The works on display blur the symbolic line that rigidly defines drawing. Looking beyond traditional "works on paper," these artists demonstrate the process of drawing as experimental and exploration that is relevant to metropolitan culture in Los Angeles. The LAVC Art Gallery's hours of operation are Monday-Thursday from 11 a.m. - 2 p.m., and 6 p.m. - 9 p.m. For more information, contact the LAVC Art Gallery at (818) 778-5536 or visit <http://www.lavc.edu/arts/artgallery.html>.

LAVC to Hold Student Success Jamboree on April 19-20 to Help Guide Students on How to Successfully Graduate or to Transfer to a University

The LAVC Student Success Committee is offering students the opportunity to attend a special “Student Success Jamboree” on Thursday, April 19 from 1-4 p.m., and Friday, April 20 from 9 a.m.-12 noon in the Emergency Services Training (EST) Building, Room 113. This free event will teach students how to find resources available to them at Valley College, and be better prepared academically so they can complete their course of study and/or transfer to a university. Participating students will learn how to be better prepared to meet the academic requirements at Valley College, and successfully complete their course of study or transfer to a university. Participants will be able to get to know faculty, counselors, and administrators, and meet fellow students who are also interested in being successful at Valley College. For more information, contact the LAVC Writing Center at (818) 947-2811 or email stars@lavc.edu.

Attention Students & Visitors—Daily Parking Permits are Now Available for Purchase

LAVC has new pay stations located in Parking Lots A and D where students and visitors can purchase a daily parking permit. The daily parking permits are $2 each, and pay stations will only accept cash (exact change). The daily parking permit is valid for any student lot only (except in staff parking spots) on the date of purchase. For more information, visit www.lavc.edu/sheriff/parking.html#dailypermit or contact the LAVC Sheriff's Station at (818) 947-2911.
