LAVC Campus News

LAVC New Web Site Navigation

LAVC will be launching a newly designed Web site. On June 18, a community open forum was held to provide information on the district-wide Web site project. The campus community is now encouraged to provide feedback on the proposed Web site navigation, visit <http://avisobeta.com/LACCD/index.php>. This template does not reflect the actual look of the new Web site but contains samples of links and navigation tools. All comments and feedback should be sent to fongjc@lavc.edu.

New Director of the LAVC Writing Center

Scott Weigand, interim director of the Writing Center, will officially be the center's new director starting July 1. As its new director, he will be expanding and building upon the services provided to students and instructors. Weigand will be managing all aspects of the Writing Center including supervising staff, teaching lab courses, and providing writing across curriculum support for departments. He has worked in the Writing Center for the past 5 years and has served as its interim director since summer 2006. His office is located in Humanities 100, and he can be reached at (818) 947-2811 or weigansm@lavc.edu.

Kathleen Sullivan moves to the LAVC Counseling Center

On July 1, Kathleen Sullivan will move to the college's general counseling office. An administrator will be hired to take over the DSPS Coordinator duties on September 1. In the interim, DSPS-related questions should be directed to the following staff members in the DSPS office: Katherine Tejada-May at (818) 947-2685, Steve Loving at (818) 947-2684 or Cyndi Maddren at (818) 947-2681. For administrative DSPS-related questions, contact Yasmin Delayhoussaye at (818) 947-2691

LAVC to receive Valley of the Stars award from the Economic Alliance

On Saturday, July 14, LAVC will be the “Valley of the Stars” education honoree at the Economic Alliance’s 10th Annual Gala Dinner and Awards Ceremony. The college is being honored for its commitment to enhancing the economic viability of the San Fernando Valley through education and training, as well as for its training partnerships with local businesses and industries for developing a more skilled workforce. The event will be held from 6-10 p.m. at the CBS Studio Center in Studio City.
