LAVC College Bulletin November 18-December 8, 2012

This Issue's News & Events

LA Valley College to Offer a Small Selection of Classes for Winter Session 2013

LAVC will offer a limited scope of courses for its Winter 2013 Session. Classes for the five-week session will start on January 2, 2013. The classes are being offered as a direct result of the voters passing Proposition 30, and will help to meet student demand. LAVC plans to schedule classes in English, math, and ESL foundational skills, as well as critical thinking, oral communications, and written communications. A more diverse array of courses will be offered in the Spring 2013 semester. The Winter Session 2013 schedule of classes will be posted online by November 19. Current LAVC students can find their Winter 2013 registration appointment by logging into the Student Information System (select "View Reg Appt" and then choose "Winter"). New and returning students will need to apply online. To read the official LAVC press release, http://www.lavc.edu/campusnews/docs/Press%20Release%20-%20LAVC_Winter_Session_2013.pdf.

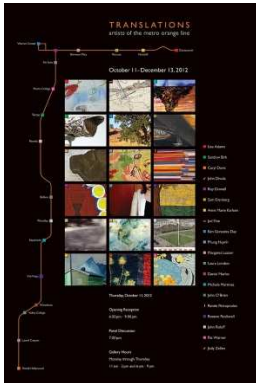

LAVC Nursing Students Host a Holiday Food Drive from November 1-30

Nursing students from LAVC's Nursing Department are holding a food drive for San Fernando Valley Food Bank from November 1-30. Donations may be dropped off in the Nursing Department (Allied Health & Sciences 1st Floor) during Monday-Friday between 8 a.m.- 3 p.m.. Suggested donations include: baby foods and formula, beans (dry or canned), canned fruit, canned meats (beef, chicken, spam and tuna), canned soups, stews and chili, canned vegetables, cereal (hot or cold), fruit juice, macaroni and cheese, pancake mix (complete), pasta and noodles, pasta sauce, peanut butter and jelly/jam, rice, all-purpose cleaner (e.g. Pine Sol), deodorant, diapers (any size), disposable razors, and laundry / dishwashing detergent. For more information, contact Nursing Department at (818) 947-2559.

LAVC Body-Fit Challenge Fundraiser Ends November 19

The LAVC Kinesiology Program, LAVC Active Club and the LAVC Student Health Center are holding a "LAVC Body-Fit Challenge" fundraiser from October 8-November 19. On Monday, November 19, all participants must come back to the Fitness Center between 6:30 a.m.-8 p.m. and have their height and weight recorded. Back on October 8, faculty, staff, and students signed up to join a challenge to lose the most weight in 7 weeks by making lifestyle changes, healthier eating habits, and increasing their physical activity. All contestants are automatically entered in a drawing for the chance to win a mountain bike. At the conclusion of the challenge, one female and one male with the most weight loss will announced as the winners. Winners will receive a LAVC Get Fit Bag with gift certificates and 1-month personal fitness consultant with an exercise and food assessment. For more information, contact Louis Jones at (818) 947-2507.

LAVC Art Gallery Presents "Translations: Artists of the Metro Orange Line" Exhibition Until December 13

The LAVC Art Gallery is presenting an exhibition entitled "Translations: Artists of the Metro Orange Line" from October 11-December 13. The exhibit features the works of twenty artists commissioned for the 18-mile Metro Orange Line bus transitway in the San Fernando Valley. The LAVC Art Gallery is open Monday through Thursday from 11 a.m.-2 p.m. and 6-9 p.m.; it will be closed for the Veteran's Day and Thanksgiving holidays. For more information, visit the LAVC Art Gallery Web page at www.lavc.edu/arts/artgallery.html.

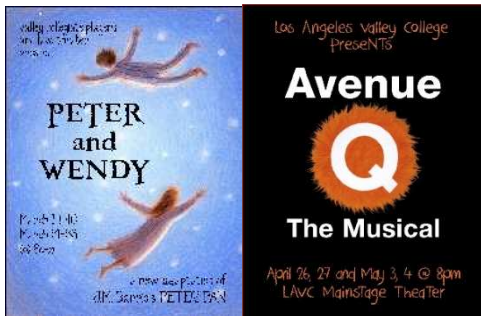

Campus Closed from November 22-25 for the Thanksgiving Holiday

LAVC will be closed from November 22-25 in observance of the Thanksgiving holiday. During the Thanksgiving holiday closure, classes will not be in session, and all offices and services will be closed. The campus will reopen on Monday, November 26. For a complete list of campus holidays and other events, visit www.lavc.edu/calendar/index.html.

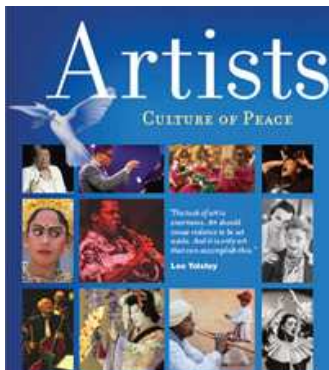

LAVC Study Away in Montpellier (South of France) to Hold an Information Session for its Summer 2013 Program on November 24

The LAVC Study Away in Montpellier/South of France will hold an information meeting on Saturday, November 24 in Foreign Language Room 102 from 12 noon-2 p.m. The Study Away in Montpellier is a month-long study program with AIFS (American Institute of Foreign Study) that will take place from June 29-July 27, 2013. Participants can earn up to 8 units of LAVC credit. If you have questions regarding this program, visit www.lavc.edu/montpellier, or contact Professor D. Merrill at merrildl@lavc.edu or (818) 947-2380.

LAVC Theater Department to Hold Auditions for its Spring 2013 Shows Peter and Wendy and Avenue Q

The LAVC Theater Department will hold auditions for its Spring 2013 productions of Peter and Wendy and Avenue Q on Monday, November 26 from 3:30-6:30 p.m. and 7:30-10 p.m., and Tuesday, November 27 from 3:30-6 p.m. and 7-10 pm in the Horseshoe Theater. Peter and Wendy is a new original, never-before-seen adaptation of J. M. Barrie's timeless fantasy of Peter Pan with contemporary songs and dances. All roles are available, seeking all ethnicities, and for many of the roles (Peter, John, Michael, Captain Hook, Nana, Crocodile, etc.), we will be considering both men and women; some roles may double. Winner of the Tony Award (best musical, best score, and best book), Avenue Q is a laugh-out-loud musical that tells the timeless story of a recent college grad named Princeton who moves into a shabby New York apartment all the way out on "Avenue Q". There, he meets Kate (the girl next door), Rod (the Republican), Trekkie (the internet sexpert), Lucy the Slut (need we say more?), and other colorful types who help Princeton finally discover his purpose in life! This musical is sure to offend and delight everyone and is rated "WTF" for colorful language and full puppet nudity! Sign-up sheets and additional information about casting will be posted in the Theater Arts Building. For more information and a cast breakdown, visit the LAVC Theater Arts Department Web page at <http://lavctheater.com> (click on "Auditions").

LAVC to Present the "Artists as Peacemakers" Exhibit in the "Culture of Peace" Series on December 3

Soka Gakkai International-USA Buddhist Association (SGI-USA) will feature the next exhibit in its "Culture of Peace" traveling exhibition series called "Artists as Peacemakers" from December 3, 2012-January 31, 2013 in the LAVC Library & Academic Resource Center. This exhibit, which is the fourth part of a rotating exhibition that is on display at LAVC during the 2012-2013 academic year, is dedicated to the many artists who are working to building a culture of peace. The exhibition series is produced by SGI-USA's Peace and Community Relations Department to raise awareness of the values and behaviors of the United Nations culture of peace initiative. Each exhibit is composed of a series of colorful fabric panels which include colorful photos, informative text and inspirational quotes on various aspects of the culture of peace. The exhibit content is non-religious and non-partisan in nature and it is the continuing hope that these exhibitions will raise awareness and stimulate meaningful dialogue. For more information on the Culture of Peace exhibition, visit www.sgi-usa.org/newsandevents/exhibitions/index.php.

Calling All LAVC Employees! You're Invited to LAVC's "Wonderful Winter Wonderland" Annual Holiday Party on December 6

LAVC will hold a "Wonderful Winter Wonderland" Annual Holiday Party for LAVC faculty and staff on Thursday, December 6 from 11:30-1:15 p.m. in the Monarch Hall. This year, LAVC faculty and staff along with TAE, LAVC's honor society, will be collecting donations for "Operation: Santa" (North Hollywood Junior Chamber of Commerce's "Jaycees" annual toy drive benefiting children of low-income families). All guests are being asked to donate either: one unwrapped gift (for a male or female of any age) or a $5 minimum donation (at the door, or in advance to the LAVC Foundation) to "Operation: Santa". This annual event is being hosted by the Academic Senate, AFT Faculty Guild, AFT Staff Guild, SEIU 721, Teamsters, LAVC Foundation, LAVC Diversity Committee, LAVC President's Office, and LAVC Administrative Team.

Additional news and events are posted online at www.lavc.edu/campusnews/.

Vision Statement

Los Angeles Valley College serves the community as a leader in instructional excellence, facilitating the success of its diverse students, developing critical thinkers and life-long learners, and contributing to the economic and cultural vitality of the San Fernando Valley and beyond.

Mission Statement

Los Angeles Valley College is a comprehensive community college located in the center of the San Fernando Valley. The College serves the community by providing transfer, degree, career-technical, foundational, transitional and continuing education programs in an attractive and accessible learning environment that fosters student success. Embedded in these programs are the greater goals of critical thinking and life-long learning which are necessary for success in the workplace and for advancing one's education, personal development and quality of life.
