8.1 ACTIVITIES FOR THE PRE- AND CO-REQUISITES, AND ADVISORIES COMPONENT:

(After each activity, where appropriate, indicate the #(s) of the legislative or regulatory authority satisfied.)

Standard	Activity
9	The College accepts official and unofficial transcripts, official placement results, placement status forms and approved challenge forms as acceptable proof to clear prerequisite/co requisites for a course. Students submit these forms to the Prerequisite Counter in Admissions prior to registering. The pre-requisite officer clears the prerequisite if the proof submitted meets with our articulation requirements. The college publishes fee refund deadlines and pre-requisite requirements online.
10 & 11	Students who wish to challenge a pre-requisite/co-requisite must submit a challenge form to the Department chair of the course they wish to challenge. If the challenge is approved, students submit the challenge form to the Pre-requisite Enforcement Counter in Admissions for clearance. Students who are denied may appeal the chairs' decision. Academic Affairs convenes the Appeals Committee and the student is provided with an answer within 5 college days.
12	The College publishes pre-requisite and co-requisite requirements and challenge process on the web, the college catalog and schedule of classes. All are online.

8.2 GOALS FOR THE PRE- AND CO-REQUISITES, AND ADVISORIES COMPONENT :

Improve the way prerequisites and co requisites are identified in college publications and respective course outlines. Ensure the pre-collegiate basic skills, reading, writing or math courses that serve as prerequisites and co requisites are offers with reasonable frequency and that the number of available sections reflects student need.

Goals
Improve basic skill course offerings based on student need.
Ensure that the new Student Information System provides prerequisite enforcement in real-time.
Provide Challenge Information to all Departments.
