

CHARTERED CLUBS FOR THE 2021-2022 ACADEMIC YEAR.

This list will be updated as clubs get chartered and recertified.

Abilities Club (Spring Meetings TBD)

Meetings: First and third Tuesdays at 1:00PM in the Fitness Center

Contact:

Club Email: abilitiesclub@gmail.com

Club Advisor: Louis Jones-JONESLH@LAVC.EDU

Club Purpose:

There is a growing population of students at LAVC with special needs. These individuals have abilities, passions, talents, and unique gifts. Our mission is to help provide them with opportunities to grow, express their talents and strengthen their vocational skills in an effort to qualify them for jobs and internships. We also hope to empower our students with special needs through the organization of campus events and fundraisers, while encouraging their involvement in both the community and student body activities. (Voluntary)

Armenian Student Association Club Meetings:

Meetings: Fridays at 4:30PM-5:15PM via Zoom.

Business Club (Spring Meetings TBD) Meetings:

Meetings: Wednesdays at 5:00PM via Zoom

Contact:

Club Email: businessclublavc@gmail.com

Club Advisor: Kevin Sanford – sanforkr@lavc.edu Club

Instagram: businessclublavc

Club Purpose: The purpose of the Business Club is for students to expand their knowledge of finance and investments. This club will allow students to learn about various topics, having a background in investing across multiple asset classes. It is paramount that students understand various asset groups and possess basic knowledge in Stocks, Bonds, Options, Foreign exchange, and even cryptocurrencies. Club members will converse and share proposals on various companies they have analyzed from growth to value. This club will add an incredible amount of value for students majoring in Business, Economics, and Accounting as various career paths from Investment Banking to Private equity require knowledge in these topics. This club will not focus on starting a business; instead, it will focus on analyzing and learning the market, geopolitical, and macroeconomic situations to understand better what moves financial markets and what financial markets are.

Club Purpose: Our club's purpose is to publicize awareness on women's issues to the students at Los Angeles Valley College. Our mission is to work alongside the Thirst Project in order to fund money for women and children in third -world countries by creating wells. The Thirst Project is an organization that creates wells so women can have easy access to water as opposed to walking 10 miles to fill jugs with water. We target women's issues such as sexual harassment, gender roles, sexism, reproductive rights, and domestic violence.
