

ADN to BSN Program

In today's market, a nurse with a BSN has a competitive advantage, with increased qualifications and career advancement options. With a BSN, you will not only expand your clinical knowledge, but also develop critical thinking, communication, and therapeutic skills.

Increase your knowledge of nursing and expand your career options with a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from National University.

11 BSN Major Courses

- ◇ Classes Conducted 100% Online—Brightspace
 - ◇ One Class at a time, Cohort Format
 - ◇ 25% LAVC Tuition Scholarship Available
 - ◇ Federal Financial Aid Available
- ◇ WSCUC/WASC Accreditation, BRN Approved
 - ◇ » Private, Non Profit University

Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) ADN to BSN—Concurrent Enrollment

11 BSN Courses; 32 Semester Units Required

Students currently enrolled in the LAVC ADN program may begin the BSN coursework during their 1st semester through the LAVC/NU ADN to BSN Concurrent Enrollment Pathway.

Students may complete up to four (4) BSN major courses prior to completing their ADN program.

- Concurrent enrollment courses available during LAVC semester
 - Remaining BSN major courses available after RN licensed
 - 25% LAVC Tuition Scholarship Available*
 - Federal Financial Aid Available
- * Tuition scholarship subject to change

Registration Now Open!

Contact the program specialist to learn more!

Additional Degree Requirements:

- ◇ General Education & Elective Requirements = 67 Semester Units Min.
- ◇ CSU/IGETC GE Certification or equivalent coursework required
- ◇ NCLEX Credit = 21 Upper Division Semester Units